PUBLIC NOTICE No. 18 /2018

Sub: Customs - "G" Card Examination - Issue of Public Notice - Reg

Attention of the trade and all public is invited to Regulation 17 (3) of the Customs Brokers Licensing Regulations, 2013. In terms of the provisions contained therein, fresh applications are invited in prescribed proforma for the written examination, which is proposed to be conducted on 15.05.2018 (Tuesday) (from 10.00 hours to 13.00 hours).

2. The Category "G" Examination consisting of two parts (i) Written Examination and (ii) Oral Examination. The written examination is for 100 marks and Oral Examination is for 50 marks and the minimum qualifying marks will be 50% of marks under each category. An applicant will be declared to have passed in the examination only when he / she secures minimum 50% of marks each in both written and oral examination.

Each applicant would be permitted to avail maximum of 4 chances or attempts to qualify in the written and oral examination from his/her first appearance for written examination. Non-appearance in any written or oral examination will not be counted as a chance or an attempt. An example has been worked out and illustrated as follows:

Illustration: A person who qualifies in the written examination in the first chance /attempt but fails to qualify in the oral exam linked to the written examination will get another three chances/attempts for oral examination. If a person qualifies only in his fourth (last) chance/attempt in the written examination, he will get only one chance for oral examination linked to the written examination in which he qualifies.

3. After qualifying both parts of the said examination (written & oral) an employee of the Customs Broker will become eligible to hold power of attorney on behalf of the Customs Broker.

3.1 The facility of appearing in only oral test by person who have qualified in written exam will be applicable only from this year onwards. Those who have qualified in written exam but failed in oral test in 'G' card exam conducted by this office previously have to appear for written exam again this year.
